Scripture: "Test everything. Hold on to the good. Avoid every kind of evil."
1 Thessalonians 5:21-22 (NIV)

Peace be multiplied unto you. A valuable gift of the Holy Spirit is discerning of spirits which helps the believer not to depend upon his or her own capabilities but by their fruits you will know them.

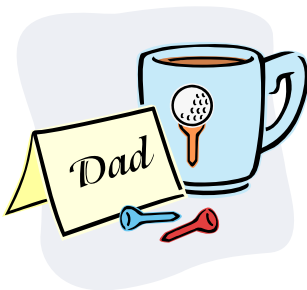

Everything we do and think needs to be tested by Scripture. If it conforms to Scriptural teaching, if Scripture says it is good, we hold on to it. We keep doing it. If it does not conform to what Scripture says, we reject it, we stop doing it. If we have done it, we repent of it and renounce it. You will always be tempted, tried and tested; that is a part of life. There will always be opportunities. It is not that there are opportunities that matters, but what you do with them. Opportunities come; however, we ought to be sensitive to the fact that God is always there. We can lie to others and we can lie to ourselves, but we cannot lie to God.

I truly believe that you are on the verge of a breakthrough and your miracle is on the way if you can believe it. Be of good cheer and wait on God. You shall reap if you faint not.

Spiritual conflict and deception will escalate as we move closer toward the coming of Christ. It is by this constant process of testing and adjusting our thinking and actions accordingly, that we learn how to distinguish good from evil. As we keep doing this, we become more and more sensitive to the presence of evil. Those in the world and some sitting in the church because of practicing evil have become callous and desensitized in their thinking. Satan will say everybody is doing it, because no one sees what you are doing, it will be okay to do wrong. We must never buy into that lie. God's eyes are everywhere beholding the good and evil.

In order to get your door open that no man can shut or a door shut that no man can open we must be faithful in our works. To the church in Philadelphia Jesus said I know your works (Rev. 3:7-8). You have a little strength, have kept My word, and have not denied My name therefore I have set before you an open door. Faithful, faithful, faithful is our God! Hold on don't give up and don't compromise because your best is yet to come!!

Shalom Shalom,
Pastor Clinton Carr Jr.
